Declarations of Items of Extraordinary Value
(High Value Form)

THIS DOES NOT REPRESENT INSURANCE

Piece By Piece Moving & Storage wants to ensure that your prized possessions receive the best care during your relocation. Please declare the following:

- Any box with a total value in excess of $1,000.00
- Any matching set of items with a value in excess of $1,000.00
- Any single item with a value of $2,500.00 or more

In accordance with insurance guidelines, failure to disclose items of extraordinary value will result in limited liability. Packable items of an extraordinary value must be packed by carrier for control, receipt and liability. Shippers are required to have these items unpacked and acknowledge receipt and condition at the time of delivery. Declaration of high value items does not provide coverage during your relocation. Piece By Piece’s liability is determined by the valuation option you select on the bill of lading.

Any damage at destination must be noted in this space:

__________________________________________________________

_______________________________  __________
Shipper or Representative  Date

Origin: By the signature below, shipper agrees this is a true and complete list of all items of extraordinary value tendered for transportation

Destination: By the signature below, the shipper acknowledges unpacking was performed and all goods were delivered in good condition, except as noted.

This certifies that I have no items of extraordinary value:

Subject to the Terms and Conditions set forth in the Storage Contract on the attached pages which the CUSTOMER HAS READ.
1. Should loss or irreparable damage occur to one or more pieces of a matching set, Piece By Piece is responsible for only the one item, not the entire set.

2. Should loss or irreparable damage occur to an item listed on the Declaration of Items of Extraordinary Value, the customer is required to make notation of loss or damage at the time of delivery.

3. In the event no appraisals are available, the burden of proof will be upon the owner of the goods to provide proof of value.

4. If the final destination of the shipment is at a warehouse other than a warehouse of Piece By Piece then coverage shall cease at the time of delivery to the “foreign” warehouse, with any and all claims subject only to those items listed at the time of delivery to the “foreign” warehouse.

5. Any claims must be submitted to the carrier in writing with supporting documents of repair or (if required) proof of value.

6. Under any circumstances, the carrier is only obligated to restore the item to the original condition when it was originally tendered to transportation. To effect further repairs would be known as betterment, and is not allowable.

7. The carrier will be not be liable for any of the following (Exclusions):
   - Items of extraordinary value not listed on the high value inventory form
   - Any of the following items not packed, crated or boxed by Piece By Piece: lamps, lamp shades, artwork, pictures, mirrors, any marble or glass items, gold leaf or plaster frames and chandeliers
   - Items found broken in boxes that have not been packed by Piece By Piece
   - Mechanical condition of electronic equipment including but not limited to audio/visual equipment, computers, printers; major appliances not properly serviced by a professional
   - Missing hardware for items not disassembled by Piece By Piece
   - Pressboard or particleboard furniture
   - Previously damaged or repaired items
   - Previously damaged or loose veneer
   - Furniture where original glue has dried out
   - Any small, loose items which are not boxed and sealed
   - If one item of a set is damaged, only that one item is covered, not the entire set
   - Plants (live, dried or artificial)
   - Condition of wall if movers are asked to unscrew/attach furniture from/to walls
   - Any damage resulting from Piece By Piece employee(s) slipping on a driveway or pathway where shipper is obviously negligent in properly salting and shoveling or likewise clearing a safe path
